The Importance of Board Service

FIND Outdoors is a 52-year-old nonprofit that offers exceptional outdoor experiences and services through partnership opportunities that improve the health, safety and education of all visitors to our public and private lands. It is our intention to develop meaningful partnerships in order to:

- 1 Build relationships with like-minded organizations to fulfill a joint mission of awareness and equity.
- 2 Change the world in a creative and inclusive manner.
- 3 Reflect the rich diversity that contributes to our communities and our society as a whole.

Becoming a member of FIND's board is a meaningful way to explore how your experience and expertise can be applied in the nonprofit sector at the governance level, and ultimately, how your skills can help advance FIND's social impact. It is a rewarding, high impact way to do community service while learning new skills that can enhance your philanthropic goals. You'll work alongside some of the most passionate team members in the outdoor industry to grow and/or focus the vision of what FIND can be doing in the communities we serve so we continue to have an impact. And with more than 92% of revenue going directly back into our mission, you'll see your impact in a big way.

FIND was awarded the GuideStar Gold Seal of Transparency through the GuideStar Exchange Program.
