Gladie Cultural-Environmental Learning Center in the Red River Gorge Reopens January 23, 2025

Red River Gorge, KY - FIND Outdoors and the US Forest Service, Daniel Boone National Forest are thrilled to announce the reopening of the Gladie Cultural-Environmental Learning Center on January 23, 2025, following essential repairs. We are excited to welcome visitors back to this beautiful area of Red River Gorge, which is renowned for its stunning landscapes and outdoor adventures.

The visitor center temporarily closed to address critical infrastructure improvements, ensuring a safe and comfortable experience for all guests. The repairs have not only restored the facility's water services but have also enhanced the overall visitor experience.

“We appreciate the patience and understanding of our community and visitors during this closure,” said Carolyn Ashworth, President and CEO of FIND Outdoors. “With these improvements, we are eager to reopen our doors and provide a welcoming space for everyone exploring the Red River Gorge.”

The Gladie Visitor Center has long been a hub for outdoor enthusiasts, nature lovers and families seeking to explore the breathtaking landscapes of the Red River Gorge. Visitors can access updated maps, guides, and expert advice on hiking, climbing and other outdoor activities. The center also offers a gift shop and interpretive exhibits highlighting the unique geology and ecology of the gorge.

The Gladie Visitor Center is located in heart of Red River Gorge along the Red River at 3451 Sky Bridge Road in Stanton, KY 40380 (Latitude: 37.83329468/Longitude: - 83.60774657). The facility will be open weekly, Thursday – Sunday from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.
