Join us for Tails on Trails at the Cradle of Forestry

Brevard, NC, 6/27/26: Animal lovers, outdoor enthusiasts, and families are invited to the Cradle of Forestry for Tails on Trails, a special event that brings together adoptable dogs, outdoor education, and opportunities to learn how people and pets can safely enjoy public lands together.

From 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m on Saturday, June 27th, visitors can meet adoptable dogs from Charlie's Angels Animal Rescue and learn about the organization's efforts to connect animals with loving, permanent homes. Guests may even have the opportunity to take a dog for a walk along the Cradle's scenic grounds!

Bring your own furry friends to enjoy pup cups, walk the historic area, and interact with fellow pet owners! Throughout the afternoon, attendees will learn practical tips for recreating responsibly with pets, including trail etiquette, wildlife awareness, leash practices, and strategies for keeping animals safe while exploring forests, parks, and public lands with advocates from Leave No Trace.

In addition to meeting adoptable dogs, visitors will have the unique opportunity to interact with a horse and learn about safe and respectful trail behavior when encountering equestrians with our partners in Slow and Say Hello!

Visitors interested in adoption are encouraged to speak with representatives from Charlie's Angels Animal Rescue about beginning the adoption process. Please note that same-day adoptions will not be available, as the rescue follows a thorough application and placement process to ensure every animal is matched with the right home.

The event is free with paid admission to the Cradle of Forestry. Tails on Trails is made possible through the partnership of Charlie's Angels Animal Rescue, Leave No Trace, Slow and Say Hello, and the USFS.
